FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE -

Hoodoo Ski Area to re-open on Monday with all-day and night skiing

Sisters, Ore. – Hoodoo Ski Area will re-open the lodge and three chairlifts on Monday Dec. 26 – Sunday January 1. Easy Rider and Manzanita chairs will start running at 9 a.m. and continue until 9 p.m. Hoodoo's Ed chair will operate from 9 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Hoodoo's popular Autobahn Tubing Park will also open from 10 a.m. - 4 p.m. on Dec. 26, operating as a sledding/tubing hill. The discounted price will be just $5 when guests provide their own sled and $10 to use a Hoodoo-provided tube.

Hoodoo's annual New Year's Eve party, presented by Pepsi, will include games, activities, live music, a special dinner menu and professional-style fireworks on the mountain. Hoodoo will also remain open on Jan. 1 from 9 a.m. - 4 p.m. For a full list of upcoming events, go to the Hoodoo Ski Area Event Calendar, presented by Rockstar Energy Drink, at www.hoodoo.com/events.

More specific questions can be answered by calling Hoodoo main office at 541-822-3799. For current road conditions along the Santiam Pass and other parts of Oregon, visit www.TripCheck.com or call the Oregon Dept. of Transportation (ODOT) toll-free at 800-977-6368. Hoodoo can also be found on Facebook at www.facebook.com/HoodooRecreation and on Twitter at @HoodooRec.

One of Oregon's oldest and most centrally located ski areas, Hoodoo continues to be a popular winter destination for skiers, snowboarders and winter sports enthusiasts throughout the Pacific Northwest. With a base of 4,668 feet, a summit of 5,703 feet and a vertical rise of 1,035 feet, Hoodoo offers a fun and challenging environment for skiers and snowboarders of all ages and skill levels.

Since opening in 1938, Hoodoo has evolved into a full-service ski area with more than 800 skiable acres, 30 alpine trails, 15.8 km of Nordic trails, three quad lifts, one triple chair and one double chair. Hoodoo also offers air board, snowbike and snow scooter rentals. The Autobahn -- Hoodoo's popular tubing park -- has more than a dozen 800-foot runs, 250+ tubes and an automated tube tow.

Hoodoo's spacious lodge includes a rental and repair shop, ski shop, restaurant, full bar, lockers, showers, arcade, dining areas, etc., as well as a large lot with overnight car parking and RV sites (by permit only). Day parking is free for Hoodoo guests and Snopark permits are available for the nearby snow parks.

Hoodoo Ski Area is a family-owned, locally operated mountain recreation area operated on federal land by agreement with the Willamette National Forest, McKenzie River ranger district. Located on the summit of Oregon's Santiam Pass and just 20 miles west of Sisters, Hoodoo is one of the state's most centrally located, economical and family friendly winter sports destinations.
